3. The section 10 Guide on how to use the Act

The Act grants a requester access to records of a private body, if the record is required for the exercise or protection of any rights. If a public body lodges a request, the public body must be acting in the public interest.

Requests in terms of the Act shall be made in accordance with the prescribed procedures, at the rates provided. The forms and tariff are dealt with in paragraphs 6 and 7 of the Act.

Requesters are referred to the Guide in terms of Section 10 which has been compiled by the South African Human Rights Commission, which will contain information for the purposes of exercising Constitutional Rights. The Guide will be available from the South African Human Rights Commission. Please direct any queries to:

4. Access to the records held by Cement & Concrete SA NPC

i. Information readily available

CCSA's business is based on a membership model which requires certain information from members for the registration process. Full records are only available on request as per section ii, in terms of the restrictions of the POPI Act.

CCSA makes a CSSA Members' Directory available on-line for business referral purposes. During the registration process, Members can "opt-out" of their information being published in the Directory. For professional business referrals, only e-mail addresses and company numbers are given, unless members have indicated that they are willing to share their cellular phone numbers. No other personal information will be made available.

Company membership lists are available on the CCSA website, and are published in the electronic CCSA journal, Concrete Beton.

6. The request procedures

Form of request:

The requester must use the prescribed form to make the request for access to a record. This must be made to the head of the private body. This request must be made to the address, fax number or electronic mail address of the body concerned.

The requester must provide sufficient detail on the request form to enable the head of the private body to identify the record and the requester. The requester should also indicate which form of access is required. The requester should also indicate if any other manner is to be used to inform the requester and state the necessary particulars to be so informed.

The requester must identify the right that is sought to be exercised or to be protected and provide an explanation of why the requested record is required for the exercise or protection of that right.

If a request is made on behalf of another person, the requester must then submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the satisfaction of the head of the private body.

Fees:

A requester who seeks access to a record containing personal information about that requester is not required to pay the request fee. Every other requester, who is not a personal requester, must pay the required request fee:

The head of the private body must notify the requester (other than a personal requester) by notice, requiring the requester to pay the prescribed fee (if any) before further processing the request.

The fee that the requester must pay to a private body is R50. The requester may lodge an application to the court against the tender or payment of the request fee.

After the head of the private body has made a decision on the request, the requester must be notified in the required form.

If the request is granted, then a further access fee must be paid for the search, reproduction, preparation and for any time that has exceeded the prescribed hours (six hours) to search and prepare the record for disclosure.

Records may be withheld until the fees have been paid.

The fee structure is available on the website of the South African Human Rights Commission at www.sahrc.org.za.

7. Availability of the manual
